Y. D. SEHGAL, Under Secy.

New Delhi, the 5th February 1966

G.S.R. 215.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of States concerned, hereby makes the following rules namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) First Amendment Rules, 1966.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from 1st January, 1964.

2. In the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement benefits) Rules, 1958.

(i) in rule 7, for sub-rule (2), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) The family of a member of the Service who is compulsorily retired from the service as a measure of penalty shall be entitled to a family pension under Rule 22, 22A or 22B, as the case may be. For the purpose of rule 22, the family pension shall be admissible for a maximum period of five years from the date of compulsory retirement.”

(ii) in rule 13, in sub-rule (2), the following sentence shall be inserted, namely:—

“The family of a member of the Service who retires or is retired under this rule shall be entitled to the benefits of the family pension as laid down in rule 22 or 22B.”

(iii) in rule 14, in sub-rule (1), the following sentence shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Nor will his family be entitled to the benefits of the family pension.”

(iv) in rule 22, for sub-rules (1) and (2), the following sub-rules shall be substituted namely:

"(1) This rule applies to those members of the Service who were in Service on the 31st December, 1963 and who had specifically opted for the benefits of this rule under the orders issued by the Central Government.

(2) (a) The State Government may grant a family pension to the family of a member of the Service in the event of the death of that member after he had rendered twenty years of qualifying Service. In exceptional circumstances, the Central Government may grant a family pension to the family of a member of the Service if the death of such member occurs before he has completed twenty years of qualifying service and if he has rendered not less than ten years of qualifying service.

(b) The total period for which a family pension may be paid shall be ten years:

Provided that the period of payment of family pension shall in no case extend beyond a period of five years from the date on which the member of the Service actually retired, or on which he would have retired, on superannuation pension in the normal course according as the death takes place after retirement or while the member of the service was in service.

NOTE.—In the case of a member of the Service who dies while on extension of service, the expression "date on which he would have retired on superannuation pension in the normal course" in the above proviso shall mean the date up to which extension of service has been sanctioned to him before his death."

(v) After rule 22-A, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

22-B (1) Application.—This rule shall apply to:

(a) All the members of the Service appointed to the Service on or after the 1st January, 1964.

(b) All those who were members of the Service on 31st December 1963 and who opted or are deemed to have opted for this rule under the general or special orders issued by*the Central Government.

(2) Scale of Family Pension.—Subject to the other provisions of this rule the scale of family pension admissible shall be as follows:

(i) where the pay of the member of the service is Rs. 800/- and above; 12% of pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150/- a month.

(ii) where the pay of the member of the service is Rs. 799/- or below; 15% of pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 96 and a minimum of Rs. 60 a month.

Explanation.—'Pay' for the purpose of this sub-rule shall be the grade pay plus special pay, if any, which the member of the Service was drawing on the date of his death while in service or immediately before his retirement. If a member of the Service has been absent from duty on leave (including extraordinary leave) or has been under suspension, on the crucial date, 'Pay' shall mean the pay which he drew immediately before proceeding on such leave or being placed under suspension.

(3) Minimum Service required.—A member of the service who has rendered one year's continuous service, including the Service rendered under the Central or a State Government before joining the Service, shall become eligible for the benefits of this rule.

(4) Definition of Family.—(i) Family for the purposes of this rule shall include the following relatives of the member of the Service, namely:—

(a) Wife, or husband, as the case may be,

- (b) minor sons; and
- (c) unmarried minor daughters.

NOTE 1.—(b) and (c) will include children legally adopted before retirement.

NOTE 2.—Marriage after retirement will not be recognised for the purposes of this rule.

(ii) the pension shall be admissible:—

- (a) in the case of widow/widower, upto the date of death or re-marriage, whichever is earlier;
- (b) in the case of minor son, until he attains the age of 18 years;
- (c) in the case of unmarried daughter until she attains the age of 21 years or marriage whichever is earlier.

NOTE.—In cases where there are two or more widows, pension will be payable to the first surviving widow. On her death it will be payable to the next surviving widow.

(iii) Pension awarded under this rule shall be payable to one member of the family at a time. It will first be admissible to the widow/widower and thereafter to the minor children.

(iv) In the event of re-marriage or death of the widow/widower, the pension shall be granted to the minor children through their natural guardian, if any, otherwise through their de facto guardian on production of indemnity bond etc. In disputed cases, however, payments shall be made through a legal guardian.

(5) A member of the Service who is entitled to the benefits of this rule will be required to surrender a portion of gratuity, where admissible, equal to his two months emoluments or pay, as the case may be, subject to a maximum of Rs. 3,600/-. No reduction in the gratuity is contemplated in the following cases namely:—

(i) where a member of the service governed by this rule retires as a bachelor who has not adopted any child;

(ii) where a member of the service retires without leaving a widow or minor children including step children.

(6) (1) The benefits of this rule shall not accrue to the family of a member of the Service who is dismissed or removed from the Service.

(ii) In case of premature death of a member of the service who may be entitled to a gratuity of less than 2 months' pay, the same shall be resumed by the Government against the family pension admissible under these rules.

(iii) The families of the members of the Service who are governed by this rule shall not be entitled to family pension including extra ordinary family pension under any other rules.

(iv) Future good conduct of the recipient is an implied condition of grant of family pension under this rule and the Central Government reserves to itself the right of withholding or withdrawing such pension or any part of it, if the recipient be convicted of serious crime or is guilty of grave misconduct. The Central Government's decision in the matter shall be final."

[No. 29/11/65-AIS(II).]

G.S.R. 216.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of States concerned, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the All India Services (Provident Fund) Rules, 1955, namely—

(Department of Economic Affairs)

New Delhi, the 3rd February 1966

G.S.R. 224.—The following draft of the Banking Regulation (Co-operative Societies) Rules, 1966 which are proposed to be framed in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 52 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (10 of 1949) and after consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, is published as required by sub-section (3) of the said section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said draft rules will be taken into consideration on or after the 12th August, 1966.

Any objection or suggestion with respect to the said draft rules should be sent to the Ministry of Finance (Department of Economic Affairs) before the date specified, a copy thereof being endorsed to the Reserve Bank of India, Central Office, Agricultural Credit Department, Post Box No. 1037, Bombay-1.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title and extent.—(a) These rules may be called the Banking Regulation (Co-operative Societies) Rules, 1966.

(b) They extend to the whole of India and shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Interpretation.—In these rules,

(a) "the Act" means the Banking Regulation Act, 1949;

(b) "commencement of these rules" means—

(i) in the case of a co-operative society which at the commencement of the Banking Laws (Application to Co-operative Societies) Act, 1963, is a co-operative bank and is carrying on the business of banking, the date on which these rules come into force;

(ii) in the case of a co-operative society which becomes a co-operative bank or which commences banking business as a co-operative bank after the commencement of the Banking Laws (Application to Co-operative Societies) Act, 1963, the date on which these rules come into force or the date on which the co-operative society so becomes a co-operative bank or so commences banking business, whichever is later;

(c) "form" means a form appended to these rules;

(d) "place of business" of a co-operative bank includes any sub-office, pay-office, sub-pay-office and any place of business, at which deposits are received, cheques cashed, moneys lent, or any other form of business referred to in sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act is transacted;

(e) "principal office of the co-operative bank" means the office of the co-operative bank which will be responsible for the submission of the returns prescribed under the Act or these rules;

(f) "principal office of the Reserve Bank" means the office of the Reserve Bank to which the returns prescribed under the Act or these rules are required to be submitted;

(g) "quarter" means a period of three months ending on the last day of March, June, September or December of any year;

(h) all expressions used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act shall have the same meanings as assigned to them under the Act;

(i) references in these rules to sections of the Act shall mean references to those sections as applied to or in relation to co-operative societies by section 56 of the Act.

3. Submission of returns.—(1) A return prescribed under the Act or these rules shall be submitted in the form prescribed for the purpose or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

(2) Such return shall be submitted by the registered office of a co-operative bank to the office of the Agricultural Credit Department of the Reserve Bank situated in the State in which the co-operative bank has its registered office or to such office of the Reserve Bank as may be specified by the Reserve Bank on an application to be made in this behalf to the Reserve Bank of India, Central Office, Agricultural Credit Department, at Bombay.

(3) A co-operative bank shall intimate to the principal office of the Reserve Bank, the address of its registered office within one month from the commencement of these rules and any change in such address within one month of such change.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (2) the Reserve Bank may, at any time, direct that the returns prescribed under the Act or these rules shall be submitted from any other specified office of a co-operative bank to any other specified office of the Reserve Bank.

(5) Whichever a return prescribed under the Act or these rules relates to a particular day or date, the return shall be prepared on the basis of the figures of that day or date in respect of offices working that day or date, and the preceding working day's figures in respect of offices where that day or date is a holiday.

4. List of Officers.—(1) A co-operative bank shall not later than one month from the commencement of these rules, send to the principal office of the Reserve Bank a written statement containing a list of—

- (a) the names, the official designations and specimen signatures of the officers authorised to sign on behalf of the co-operative bank returns required to be submitted under the Act or these rules; and
- (b) the names and addresses of the directors of the co-operative bank or the members of the committee of management of the co-operative bank.

(2) Any change in the list referred to in sub-clause (1) above shall be intimated to the principal office of the Reserve Bank within one month from the occurrence of such change.

5. Form of statement of cash reserve and unsecured advances.—The statement to be submitted under section 18 and the return to be submitted under section 20 of the Act shall be in Form I and Form II respectively.

6. Licensing of co-operative banks.—A co-operative society or a bank desiring to have a licence under section 22 of the Act shall apply to the principal office of the Reserve Bank in the form specified below, namely:—

- (a) in the case of a co-operative society, desiring to commence banking business as a co-operative bank after the commencement of the Banking Laws (Application to Co-operative Societies) Act, 1955, in Form III,
- (b) in the case of a co-operative society which at the commencement of the Banking Laws (Application to Co-operative Societies) Act, 1965 is carrying on business as a co-operative bank or which after such commencement becomes a co-operative bank, and desires to carry on banking business in Form IV.

7. Opening of new places of business.—An application by a co-operative bank for permission to open a new place of business or change the location of an existing place of business under section 23 of the Act shall be submitted to the principal office of the Reserve Bank in Form V.

8. List of offices.—A co-operative bank shall, within a period of one month from the close of every quarter, send to the principal office of the Reserve Bank a list relating to its offices in India in Form VI.

9. Other returns or statements.—The returns or statements to be submitted under sub-section (3) of section 24, section 26 and sub-section (1) of section 27 shall be in Form VII, VIII and IX respectively.

10. Manner of publication of accounts and balance sheet.—The balance sheet and profit and loss account prepared in terms of section 29 of the Act together with the auditor's report shall be published within a period of six months from the end of the period to which they relate in a newspaper which is in circulation at the place where the co-operative bank has its principal office.

Explanation 1.—For the purpose of this rule, the expression "newspaper" means any newspaper or journal published at least once a week but does not include a journal other than a banking, commercial, financial or economic journal.

Explanation 2.—In the case of a primary co-operative bank in places where no newspaper is in circulation, a display of the balance sheet and profit and loss account with the auditor's report at the principal office and at every place of business of such bank shall be deemed as satisfactory compliance with the provisions of this rule.

11. Power to exempt in certain cases.—The Central Government may, on the recommendation of the Reserve Bank, declare by notification in the Official Gazette that any or all of the provisions of these rules shall not apply to any co-operative bank or to any class of co-operative banks generally or for such period as may be specified.

12. Banking Companies Rules, 1949 not to apply.—Nothing contained in the Banking Companies Rules shall apply to co-operative societies.

MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 1st February 1966

G.S.R. 227.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 74 read with section 458 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Merchant Shipping (Registration of Indian Ships) Rules, 1960, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Merchant Shipping (Registration of Indian Ships) Amendment Rules, 1966.
2. In the Merchant Shipping (Registration of Indian Ships) Rules, 1960 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), for rule 10 the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"10. Marking on ships.—Every ship shall, before registry, be marked permanently and conspicuously to the satisfaction of the registrar as follows:—

- (a) her name shall be marked on each of her bows, and her name and the name of her intended port of registry shall be marked on her stern on a dark background in white or yellow letters or on a light background in black letters, which shall be not less than one decimetre in height and 1.3 centimetres in breadth.
- (b) her official number and the number denoting her registered tonnage shall be cut in on her main beam.
- (c) her scale of draught marks shall be cut or welded in metres and decimetres forward and aft on both sides of the ship.

In the case of modern type of ships having a raked soft stem and cruiser stern, the marks shall be cut in or welded as close and aft of the stem as possible following the contour of the stem. The marks aft or at the stern shall be cut a short distance forward of the after perpendicular."

3. In rule 13 of the said rules—

(a) in sub-rule (1), for the words "the owner may apply to the registrar of the port for the grant of a temporary pass for plying the ship between the ports in India", the words "or, in other special circumstances, the owner may apply to the registrar of the port for the grant of a pass for proceeding to another port in India" shall be substituted;

(b) for sub-rule (3), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"(3) The Pass shall be granted on Registry Form No. 17 or Registry Form No. 18, as the case may be, and bear the following endorsement at the back, namely:—

"This is to certify that the Director General has, in pursuance of section 41 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), granted permission for the ship herein described to pass as an Indian registered ship from.....to....." "This pass shall expire on the.....day of.....19..., or on the arrival of the ship at the port of....., whichever is earlier."

".....whose Certificate of Competency/Service is No.....is the master of the said ship."

4. In rule 17 of the said rules,—

(a) for sub-rules (1) and (2), the following sub-rules shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Where any such application as is referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 16 is made to the registrar at a port other than a ship's port of registry, the registrar shall provisionally endorse the particulars of the alteration on the ship's existing certificate of registry or grant a provisional certificate of registry. Such certificate shall be given on Registry Form No. 1 with the word 'PROVISIONAL' written before the heading.

(2) The registrar at the ship's port of registry shall be advised of the action taken in accordance with sub-rule (1) and the certificate of survey, the carving and marking note, duly certified, and, if the ship has been granted a provisional certificate of registry, the certificate of registry, shall be forwarded to him."

(b) in sub-rule (4), for the words "or the temporary pass as the case may be", the words, "if any" shall be substituted.

5. In rule 22 of the said rules, sub-rule (2) shall be omitted.

6. In rule 32 of the said rules, the words "every such change of name shall be reported to the Director General by the registrar" shall be omitted.

7. In sub-rule (3) of rule 36, after the word "transaction", the words, "entry or change" shall be inserted.

8. In the first Schedule to the said rules,—

(a) in Registry Forms Nos. 1 to 14 (inclusive), 17 to 19 (inclusive) and 26(a), the columns relating to "Feet" and "Tenths", wherever they occur, shall be omitted;

(b) in Registry Forms Nos. 17 and 18, in the portion relating to the certificate to be given by the Surveyor, the word "feet" shall be omitted.

9. In Schedule II to the said rules,—

(a) the following entry shall be omitted, namely:—

"Extension of the period of Temporary Pass or Provisional Certificate of Indian Registry.....15'00";

(b) the following entry shall be added at the end, namely:—

"For grant of pass to an unregistered ship.....15'00".

MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER

New Delhi, the 27th January 1966

G.S.R. 231.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class I and Class II Gazetted posts in the Farakka Barrage Project under the Ministry of Irrigation and Power, namely:

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Farakka Barrage Project (Class I and Class II posts) Recruitment Rules, 1966.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column I of the Schedule hereto annexed.

3. Classification, scales of pay, method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications etc.—The classification of the said posts, the scales of pay attached thereto, the method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said posts shall be as specified in the said Schedule annexed to these rules.

Provided that the upper age limit specified in column 6 of the said Schedule for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and other special categories in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

4. Disqualification:

(i) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and

(ii) no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

5. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

6. Liability to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with the Defence of India.—Any person appointed to any of the said posts shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any Defence Service or post connected with the defence of India for a period of not less than four years, including the period spent on training, if any:

Provided that such person:

- (a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of appointment;
- (b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

MINISTRY OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

(Department of Agriculture)

(Indian Council of Agricultural Research)

New Delhi, the 2nd February 1966

G.S.R. 232.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to amend the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (Statistical Class III Posts) Recruitment Rules, 1965, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (Statistical Class III Posts) Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1965.

2. In the Schedule to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (Statistical Class III Posts) Recruitment Rules, 1965, after the item 'Senior Computer' against serial number 2 and the entries relating thereto, the following items and the entries relating thereto shall be inserted, namely:—

7. In section 3, sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

8. In section 5, in sub-section (2), for the words "Commissioner of Police, Bombay, in Greater Bombay and of the District Magistrate, elsewhere" the words "District Magistrate" shall be substituted.

9. In section 6A, in sub-section (2), for the words "Deputy Commissioner for Police in Greater Bombay and Assistant or Deputy Superintendent of Police, elsewhere" the words "Deputy Superintendent of Police" shall be substituted.

10. In section 6B,—

(i) in sub-section (3), the words "or it" shall be omitted;

(ii) in sub-section (4), the words "or itself" and "or it" shall be omitted;

(iii) the following explanation shall be added at the end, namely:—

"Explanation.—Where the Commandant General, while exercising the powers of the Commandant, passes any order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A)—

(a) the appeal from such order shall lie to the Administrator;

(b) for the purposes of sub-section (4), the power of revision of such order shall vest in the Administrator."

11. In section 9A, sub-section (1) shall be omitted.

12. Section 10 shall be omitted.

ANNEXURE

The Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947 (Bombay Act 3 of 1947), as extended to the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli.

BOMBAY ACT NO. III OF 1947

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF HOME GUARDS

Whereas it is expedient to provide a voluntary organisation for use in emergencies and for other purposes in the State of Bombay, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947.

2. It extends to the whole of the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli.

3. It shall come into force at once.

1A. Definition.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"Administrator" means the Administrator of the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli.

2. Constitution of Home Guards and appointment of Commandant General and Commandant.—(1) The Administrator shall constitute for the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli a volunteer body called the Home Guards, the members of which shall discharge such functions and duties in relation to the protection of persons, the security of property and the public safety as may be assigned to them in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder:

Provided that the Administrator may, by notification in the Official Gazette, divide the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli into two or more areas and constitute such a volunteer body for each such area.

(1A) * * * *

(2) The Administrator may appoint a Commandant of each of the Home Guards constituted under sub-section (1).

(3) The Administrator shall appoint a Commandant General of the Home Guards in whom shall vest the general supervision and control of the Home

Guards throughout the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and until a Commandant is appointed under sub-section (2), the Commandant General may also exercise the powers and perform the functions assigned to the Commandant by or under this Act.

3. Appointment of members.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Commandant General, the Commandant may appoint as members of the Home Guards such number of persons, who are fit and willing to serve, as may from time to time be determined by the Administrator, and may appoint any such member to any office of command in the Home Guards.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Commandant General may, subject to the approval of the Administrator, appoint any such member to any post under his immediate control.

(3) * * * *

4. Functions and duties of members.—(1) The Commandant may at any time call out a member of the Home Guards for training or to discharge any of the functions or duties assigned to the Home Guards in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(2) The Commandant General may in an emergency call out a member of the Home Guards for training or to discharge any of the said functions or duties in any part of the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli.

5. Powers, protection and control.—(1) A member of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 shall have the same powers, privileges and protection as an officer of police appointed under any Act for the time being in force.

(2) No prosecution shall be instituted against a member of the Home Guards in respect of anything done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his functions or duties as such member except with the previous sanction of the District Magistrate.

6. Control by officers of police force.—The members of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 in aid of the police force shall be under the control of the officers of the police force in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by rules made under section 8.

6A. Certificate, arms, etc., to be delivered up by person ceasing to be member.—(1) Every person who for any reason ceases to be a member of the Home Guards shall forthwith deliver up to the Commandant or to such person and at such place as the Commandant may direct, his certificate of appointment or of office and the arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessaries which have been furnished to him as such member.

(2) Any Magistrate and for special reasons which shall be recorded in writing at the time, any police officer not below the rank of a Deputy Superintendent of Police may issue a warrant to search for and seize, wherever they may be found, any certificate, arms, accoutrements, clothing or other necessaries not so delivered up. Every warrant so issued shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), by a police officer or if the Magistrate or the police officer issuing the warrant so directs by any other person.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to any article which under the orders of the Commandant General has become the property of the person to whom the same was furnished.

6B. Punishment of members for neglect of duty etc.—(1) The Commandant shall have the authority to suspend, reduce or dismiss or fine, to an amount not exceeding fifty rupees, any member of the Home Guards, under his control, if such member, without reasonable cause, on being called out under section 4 neglects or refuses to obey such order or to discharge his functions and duties as a member of Home Guards or to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his functions and duties or is guilty of any breach of discipline or misconduct. The Commandant shall also have the authority to dismiss any member of the Home Guards on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge. The Commandant General shall have the like authority in respect of any member of the Home Guards appointed to a post under his immediate control.

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the Commandant shall have the authority to discharge any member of the Home Guards at any time subject to such conditions as may be prescribed if, in the opinion of the Commandant, the services of such member are no longer required. The Commandant General shall have the like authority in respect of any member of the Home Guards appointed to a post under his immediate control.

(2) When the Commandant General or the Commandant passes an order for suspending, reducing, dismissing or fining any member of the Home Guards under sub-section (1), he shall record such order or cause the same to be recorded, together with the reasons therefor and a note of the inquiry made in writing and no such order shall be passed by the Commandant General or the Commandant unless the person concerned is given an opportunity to be heard in his defence.

(3) Any member of the Home Guards aggrieved by an order of the Commandant may appeal against such order to the Commandant General and any such member aggrieved by an order of the Commandant General may appeal against such order to the Administrator within thirty days of the date on which he was served with notice of such order. The Commandant General or the Administrator as the case may be, may pass such order as he thinks fit.

(4) The Commandant General or the Administrator may at any time call for and examine the record of any order passed by the Commandant or Commandant General, respectively, under sub-section (1) or (1A) for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order passed by the Commandant or the Commandant General, as the case may be, and may pass such order with reference thereto as he thinks fit.

(5) Every order if no appeal is made therefrom as hereinbefore provided and every order passed in appeal or revision under this section shall be final.

(6) Any fine imposed under this section may be recovered in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898) for the recovery of fines imposed by a Court as if such fine were imposed by a Court.

(7) Any punishment inflicted on a member of the Home Guards under this section shall be in addition to the penalty to which such member is liable under section 7 or any other law for the time being in force.

Explanation.—Where the Commandant General, while exercising the powers of the Commandant, passes any order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A)—

- (a) the appeal from such order shall lie to the Administrator;
- (b) for the purpose of sub-section (4), the power of revision in respect of such order shall vest in the Administrator.

7. Penalty.—(1) If any member of the Home Guards, on being called out under section 4, without reasonable excuse, neglects or refuses to obey such order, or to discharge his functions as a member of the Home Guards, or to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his duties, he shall on conviction, be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees or with both.

(1A) If any member of the Home Guards wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver up his certificate of appointment or of office or any other article, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 6A, he shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or with both.

(2) No proceedings shall be instituted under sub-section (1) or (1A) without the previous sanction of the Commandant.

(3) A police officer may arrest without warrant any person who commits an offence punishable under sub-section (1) or (1A).

8. Rules.—The Administrator may make rules consistent with this Act,—

- (a) providing for the exercise by any officer of the Home Guards of the powers conferred by section 4 on the Commandant and the Commandant General;
- (b) providing for the exercise of control by officers of the police force over members of the Home Guards when acting in aid of the police force;

- (c) regulating the organisation, appointment, conditions of service, functions, discipline, arms, accountrements and clothing of members of the Home Guards and the manner in which they may be called out for service;
- (d) regulating the exercise by members of the Home Guards of any of the powers exercisable under section 5 of this Act;
- (e) generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

9. Members of Home Guards to be public servants.—Members of the Home Guards acting under this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1960).

9A. Home Guards not disqualified from contesting elections to local bodies.—
(1) * * * * *

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force, a member of the Home Guards shall not be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of any local authority merely by reason of the fact that he is a member of the Home Guards.
